

College & Career Center

Announcements

Scholarships

Sons of Italy in America Scholarship – Applicants (seniors) must be wholly or partially of Italian descent. Scholarships are either academic awards for college or Italian Language Study Grants in Italy for next summer. Applications can be found at www.sonsofitalyca.org or from Mrs. Ryken. Deadline is March 1, 2012.

CAC Educational Scholarship Foundation – Candidates for these three scholarship awards write an essay on “Importance of Establishing and Maintaining Good Financial Credit during your College Years.” See Mrs. Ryken for an application. The deadline is January 16, 2012.

Coco-Cola Scholars Foundation Scholarships – For requirements and application information, visit www.coca-colascholars.org.

Fireside Essay Scholarship – Fireside Catholic Publishing will award five scholarships to seniors who write an essay, “How is your religious education influencing your life?” The deadline is December 19, 2011. See Mrs. Ryken for an application. Only one applicant will be considered from Mercy.

Horatio Alger Association Scholarships – Eligibility includes a strong commitment to earning a 4-year Bachelor’s Degree, critical financial need, involvement in co-curricular and community activities, minimum GPA of 2.0. The online application is at www.horatioalger.org/scholarships. (Do you know who Horatio Alger is?) The deadline is soon: October 30. Applications must be mailed.

Don’t forget previously advertised scholarships:

- Colgate-Palmolive Hispanic Scholarship Fund grants.
www.colgate.com/hazlau.
- Elks National Foundation Most Valuable Student Scholarships
Applications available in the C&CC.